I. MEETING CALL TO ORDER- Mark Manning called the meeting to order at 2:05PM.

II. MINUTES- Ron Gilles moved to approve minutes from the April 19th meeting; Linda Baker seconded; all approved.

III. OLD BUSINESS-

3.1- Conser House Update- Patti Ball gave an update on the Conser House. The Chautauqua series finished up and 18-20 people attended the final event. Patti gave an update on how the Glenn Marlatt day went. The doors for the Conser house are arriving at the end of the month to be placed in July. Patti talked about the second-floor planning and how it is moving along. She discussed how they are getting bids for an irrigation system and developing a landscape plan. Linda Baker said she had a contact with U of O to pass on to Patti.

3.2- Historic Signage- Mark Manning showed the group the finished signs for the Conser Ferry and the School. Mark informed the group that Lorlei Gilmore and Karen Wells that live outside city limits, bought their own signs. He informed us that there are no other historic home signs in the works but discussed a few that they might start on. Patti Ball shared with the group that she had someone working on the sign for the Catholic Church. Patti also shared with the group the signs that are being made in Stayton with a historic picture and a blurb about the property. Patti said she wanted to look into making some for Jefferson.

3.4- LAC Summer Farmers Market- Brianna shared the posters she had made for the Farmers Market as well as the Concerts at the Conser. She discussed with the group the 8 full time vendors and 3 part time vendors that would be attending. Linda Baker asked about accepting late applicants and Brianna was opposed at first but upon further discussion agreed that we would accept some late applicants to have as many vendors as possible.
